introduction & notes

I wanted to share my experience with Sinder and Red manipulating me, using me, and dragging me into drama, while sabotaging, slandering & spreading lies about people I thought were her closest friends. Not only do I no longer wish to work with Sinder, but I want to share what I've endured over the years & shed light on what she has been doing behind people's backs to protect artists and friends that may be experiencing something similar.

I struggled a lot with writing this document and wasn't sure if what I felt and experienced working was real or just burnout but I think this proves that I was lied to and manipulated over the course of years while working with Sinder.

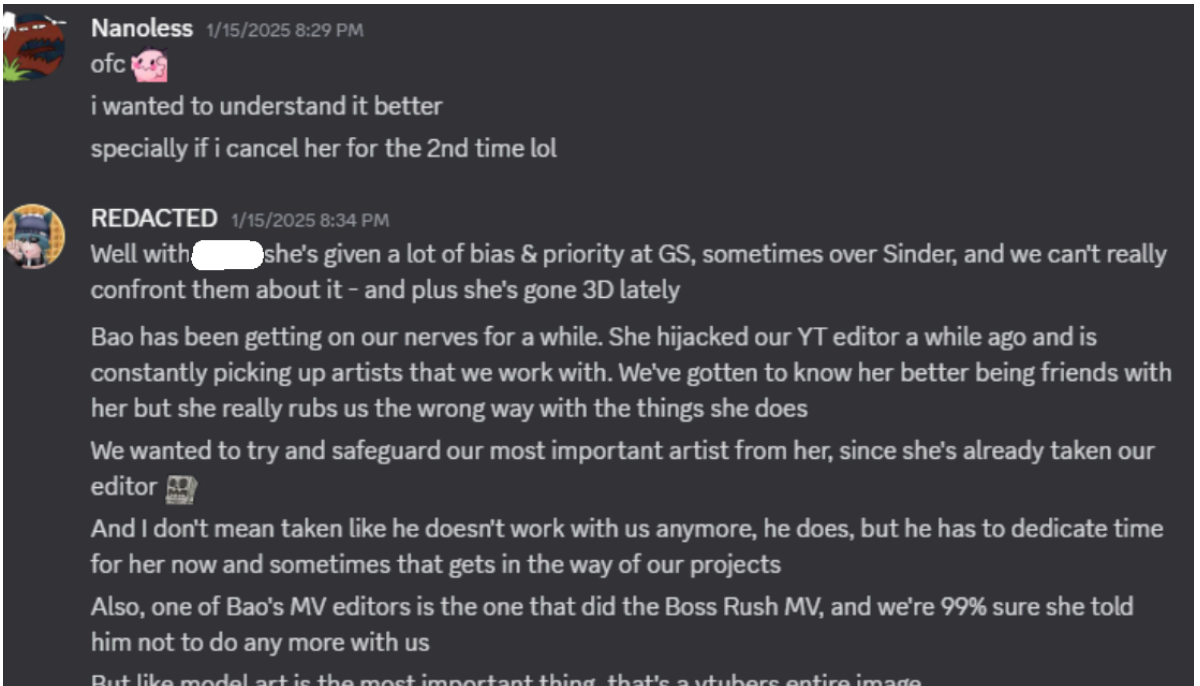
Note: Based on working with Redacted (Red, Sinder's manager) and Sinder over the years that I am sure they speak for each other and there is no reason to believe Red was acting without Sinder's consent and knowledge. Whenever I use "they" or "them" it refers to both of them acting as a team.

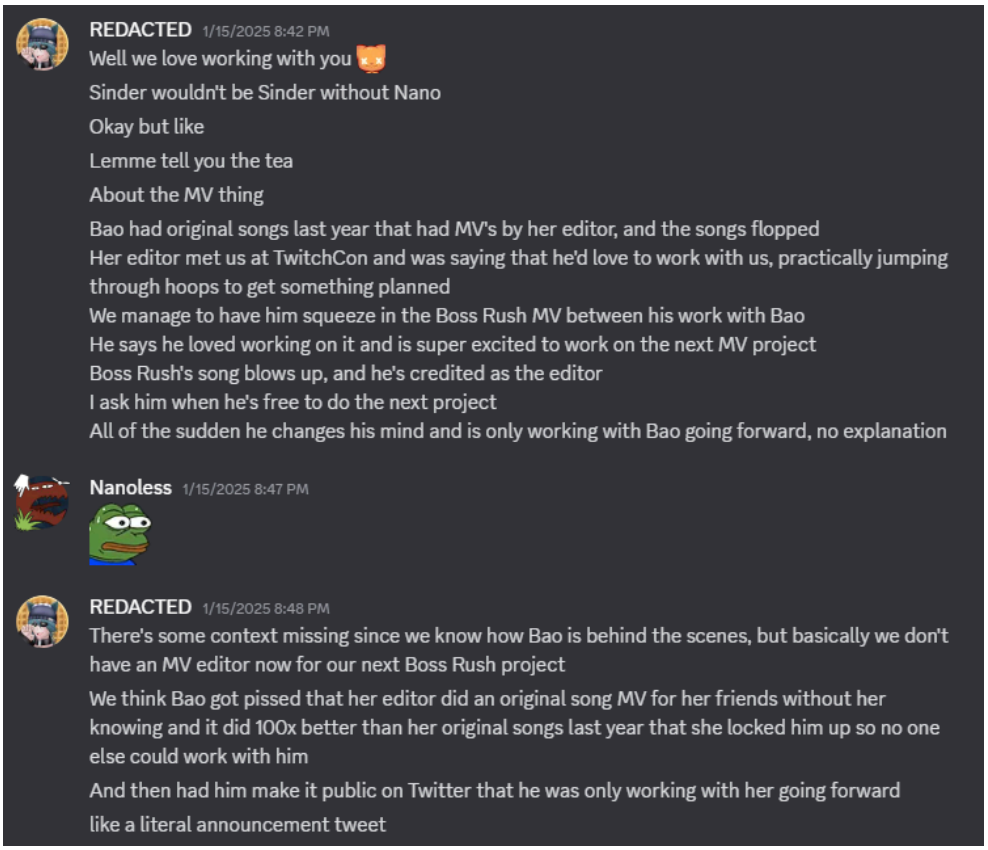
English not being my first language and the language barrier, I discussed the situation, my feelings & thoughts with native English speakers who helped me put them into words so everything is clear without any misunderstandings due to lack of English skills!

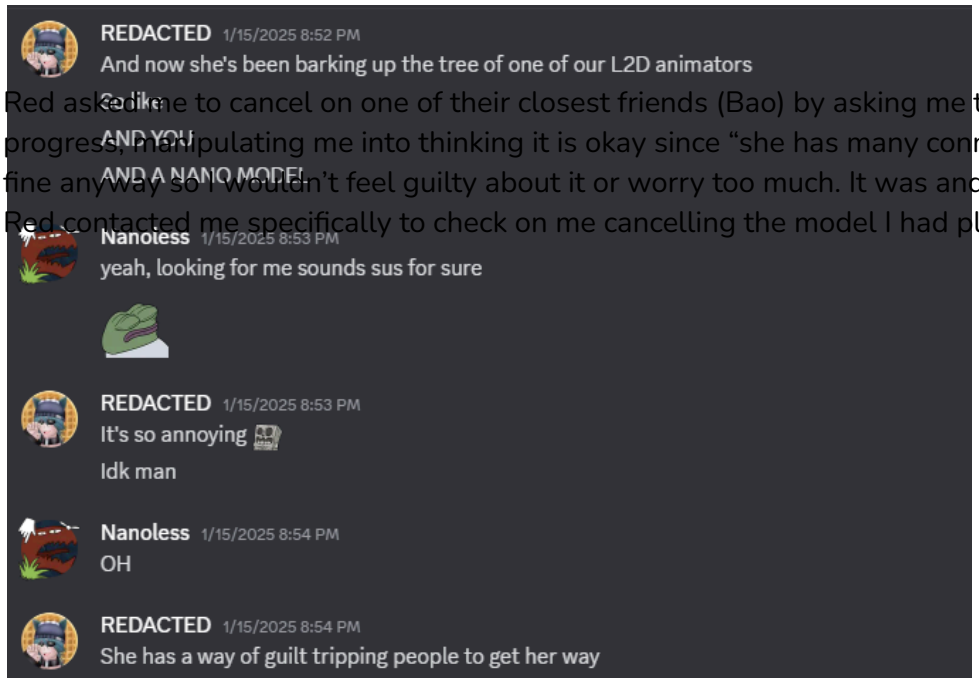
Note: Any names that are censored here were censored because the creator in question did not provide consent to have their name revealed by the time of me posting this document.

slandering other creators

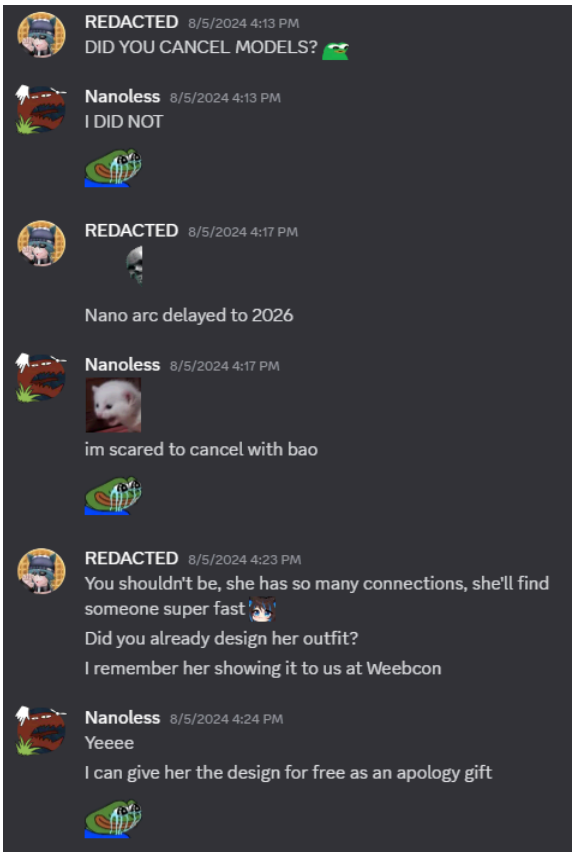
I will start with screenshots showing them speaking ill of other creators & spreading rumors while manipulating me that it's all in our best interest. In addition to spreading ill rumors they also complain and accuse Bao of giving "their" editor too much work, resulting in the editor not having any time for new clients which will be important later on. The screenshots below show them showing their affection & appreciation immediately followed by spreading rumors & lies to make other clients appear problematic to manipulate any future decisions regarding commissions.







Red asked me to cancel on one of their closest friends (Bao) by asking me to cancel my work mid progress, manipulating me into thinking it is okay since “she has many connections” and she’ll be fine anyway so I wouldn’t feel guilty about it or worry too much. It was and is upsetting to me that Red contacted me specifically to check on me cancelling the model I had planned with Bao.



exclusivity & blacklisting other creators

In the messages below they mentioned wanting an exclusivity contract, but they didn't want to pay for exclusivity,but rather when a creator from their blacklist comes asking for a commission, they would guarantee me model work for Sinder only and if anyone asked me for commissions they'd commission me instead to compensate for not working with other creators. This felt very strange given that one of the accusations they made was overworking their editor yet their "solution" to me working with other creators was for them to essentially overwork me to keep me from working on other projects.

The messages below show that their primary concern is that the more non Sinder models I make, the less "valuable" my existing models become. It's hard to say how much this messed with my mind as an artist that by working with other people I'm somehow making my existing models less special.

Following screenshot is of them setting up the blacklist, saying I am not allowed to work with any new clients or create any new outfits for (Vtuber 1) specifically & justifying those things by saying that with each model, my art becomes less unique & special and therefore Sinder somehow will become less special. (Screenshot below)

The idea that my work as an artist and designer is devalued by working with other people is insane and hurtful. After realizing what taking a deal with them would really mean for both my workload and my mental health I backed out.

REDACTED 1/15/2025 6:48 PM
I mean like, if we wanted to have some kind of model exclusivity, what would you need to make that sustainable for you

Nanoless 1/15/2025 6:52 PM
hmm maybe you can share one of your ideas and i can check what i think?

Nanoless 1/15/2025 7:21 PM
ok, so i got some ideas for this i guess

REDACTED 1/15/2025 7:27 PM
I was driving What are you thinking

Nanoless 1/15/2025 7:28 PM
ok, so asked help from my friends (they dont know its you dw)
so a montly fee (calculating my monthly earnings) also how long would this be and if this counts for models I already worked on

REDACTED 1/15/2025 7:58 PM
Well I think the main things we're looking for are for you not to take on any brand new model clients, and to not make any new models/outfits with [redacted] again
You'd still be able to work on models/outfits with all of your other existing babies, and your artwork coms wouldn't be affected

REDACTED 1/15/2025 8:05 PM
One of our concerns is that more Nano babies means Nano models don't have the same value anymore
And second is that there's a few people that we just would rather not be able to have a model from you
Maybe not any new babies at all
The reason why I brought this up at all is that there's been a lot of bias with another one of our partners with certain creators And we'd rather these creators not have what makes Sinder unique, which is your artwork

REDACTED 1/15/2025
Just drama

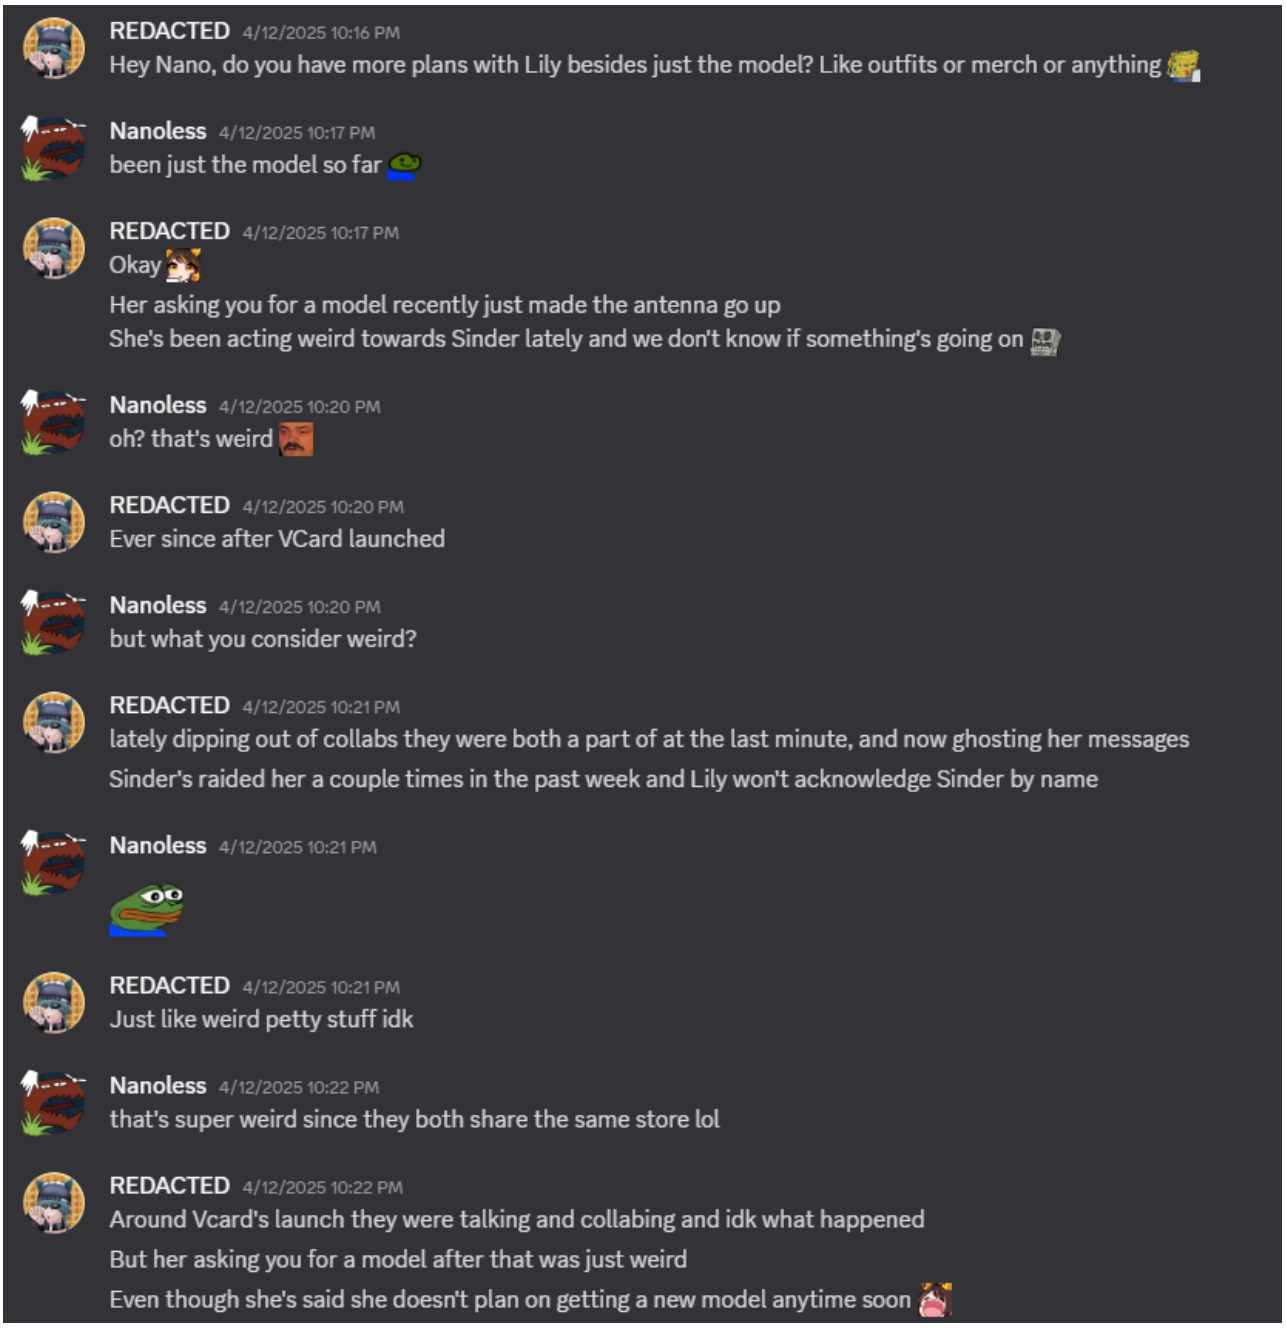
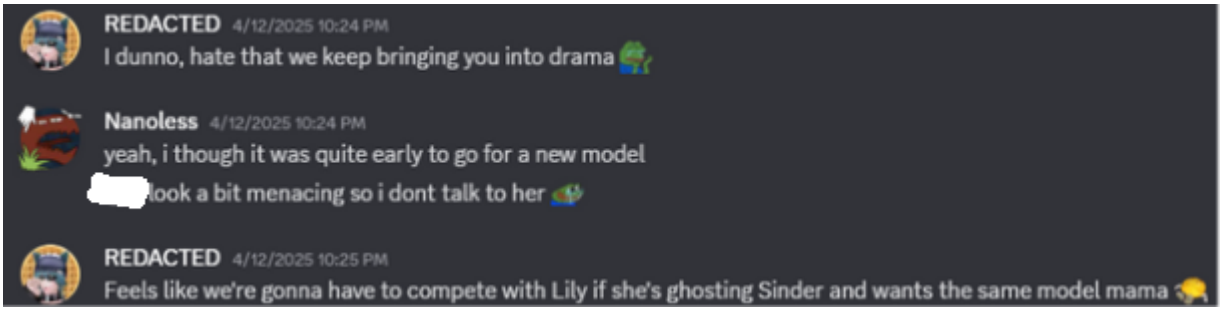
Another example of speaking ill of other creators right after they saw I was working with Shylily, trying to once again make the idea of working with other clients seem like I am setting myself up with problematic people who will do me no good in the long run to get me to reconsider working with them. They also continuously kept asking about my other clients' plans which for them “made the antenna go up”and immediately went into slandering Lily. They consistently try to reassure me that despite their best efforts, they just happen to keep trying to bring drama in as reasons for me to go exclusive and that working only with Sinder is them trying to look out for me.





The idea that they need to “stay informed” & “gauge the competition” is extremely upsetting and toxic to me. The “competition” they’re referring to are people I thought they considered friends, who always helped, supported, and platformed Sinder. When I pushed back the immediate response was blaming the other creators and implying that they “initiated” it by trying to work with me and that somehow justified their actions. They imply Lily ignored Sinder when she spent over a minute thanking the raid which you can see in this clip.

REDACTED 4/12/2025 10:29 PM
Real
Is it just Sinder and [redacted] you've been doing continuous model outfits for?
We'll have the demon update list + final arcade reference for you soon, as soon as it's finished

Nanoless 4/12/2025 10:34 PM
i think it is i have an outfit for [redacted] planned too as for [redacted] got nothing for now but she always comes up with something

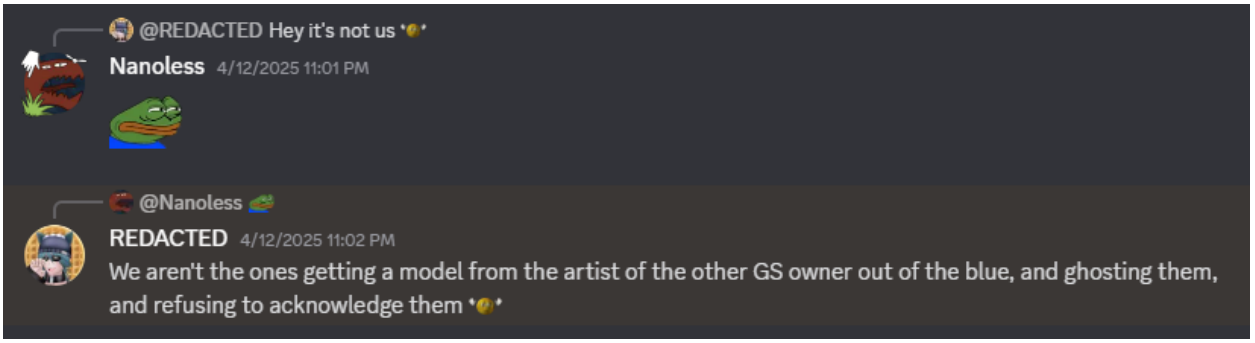
REDACTED 4/12/2025 10:38 PM

REDACTED 4/12/2025 10:49 PM
Do you know who's rigging Lily's model?

Nanoless 4/12/2025 10:50 PM
gonna be [redacted]

REDACTED 4/12/2025 10:50 PM

Thanks Nano, sorry for all the questions
Just gotta stay informed, especially when it comes to our top artist Never a break



Below I wanted to push back and make clear I was uncomfortable on being dragged into drama and they responded by bringing up more drama & baseless claims all while trying to guilt trip me. It is ironic and crazy to me that I mention not wanting to be dragged into personal issues only for them to on multiple occasions mention other peoples alleged drama.

Nanoless 2/11/2025 7:18 PM
Sinder, just wanted to say sorry for stepping back on the "exclusivity" deal. Wanted to apologize personally to you since I've only talked about that with Red :c But I just don't want to be dragged on any personal issues like that. After all [redacted] still a client and it makes me anxious and kinda destroys my mental to do this kind of deal.

Just wanted to let you know i still love working with you and Red but I'll understand if things doesnt work out because of [redacted] I just love my clients, that's all.

Sinder 2/11/2025 10:33 PM
I get it Nano, and it was unfair to push this on you, but it's just really confusing going back and forth about it

I just get compared to her a lot even still today and it's like I'm always living in someone's shadow, which is one reason why Red asked about not making any more models for her

And when you said "I understand if things don't work out" it makes me feel like you're okay with not working with me anymore, which hurts so much after all this time. I really appreciate you Nano, and its your decision who you ultimately work with, but this is how I've been feeling

i dont really see the point of keeping thinking about being compared to [redacted] you're so much bigger already, you've done so much more but i would never give [redacted] any priority over you, also there not even any model for her being discussed
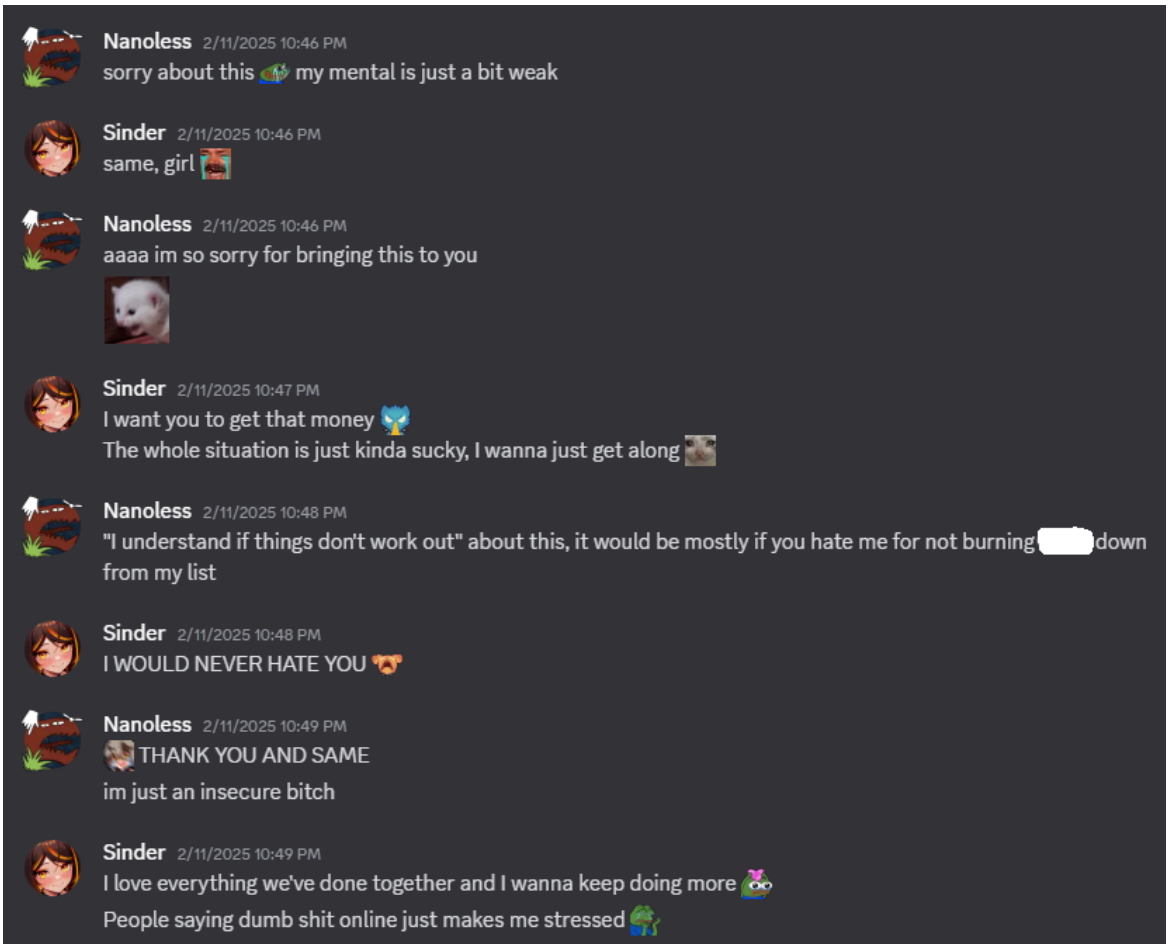
i just want to sleep clear minded also im fine not doing her models, but at least Gamersupps art stuff would be fine with me i dont wanna be 100% an asshole to her, that's all

Sinder 2/11/2025 10:44 PM
It's not me, but other people's opinions of us, and I'm just trying to not get involved in any drama that other people want to talk about comparing us

But I understand where you're coming from Nano, there's no hard feelings

Nanoless 2/11/2025 10:46 PM
sorry about this my mental is just a bit weak

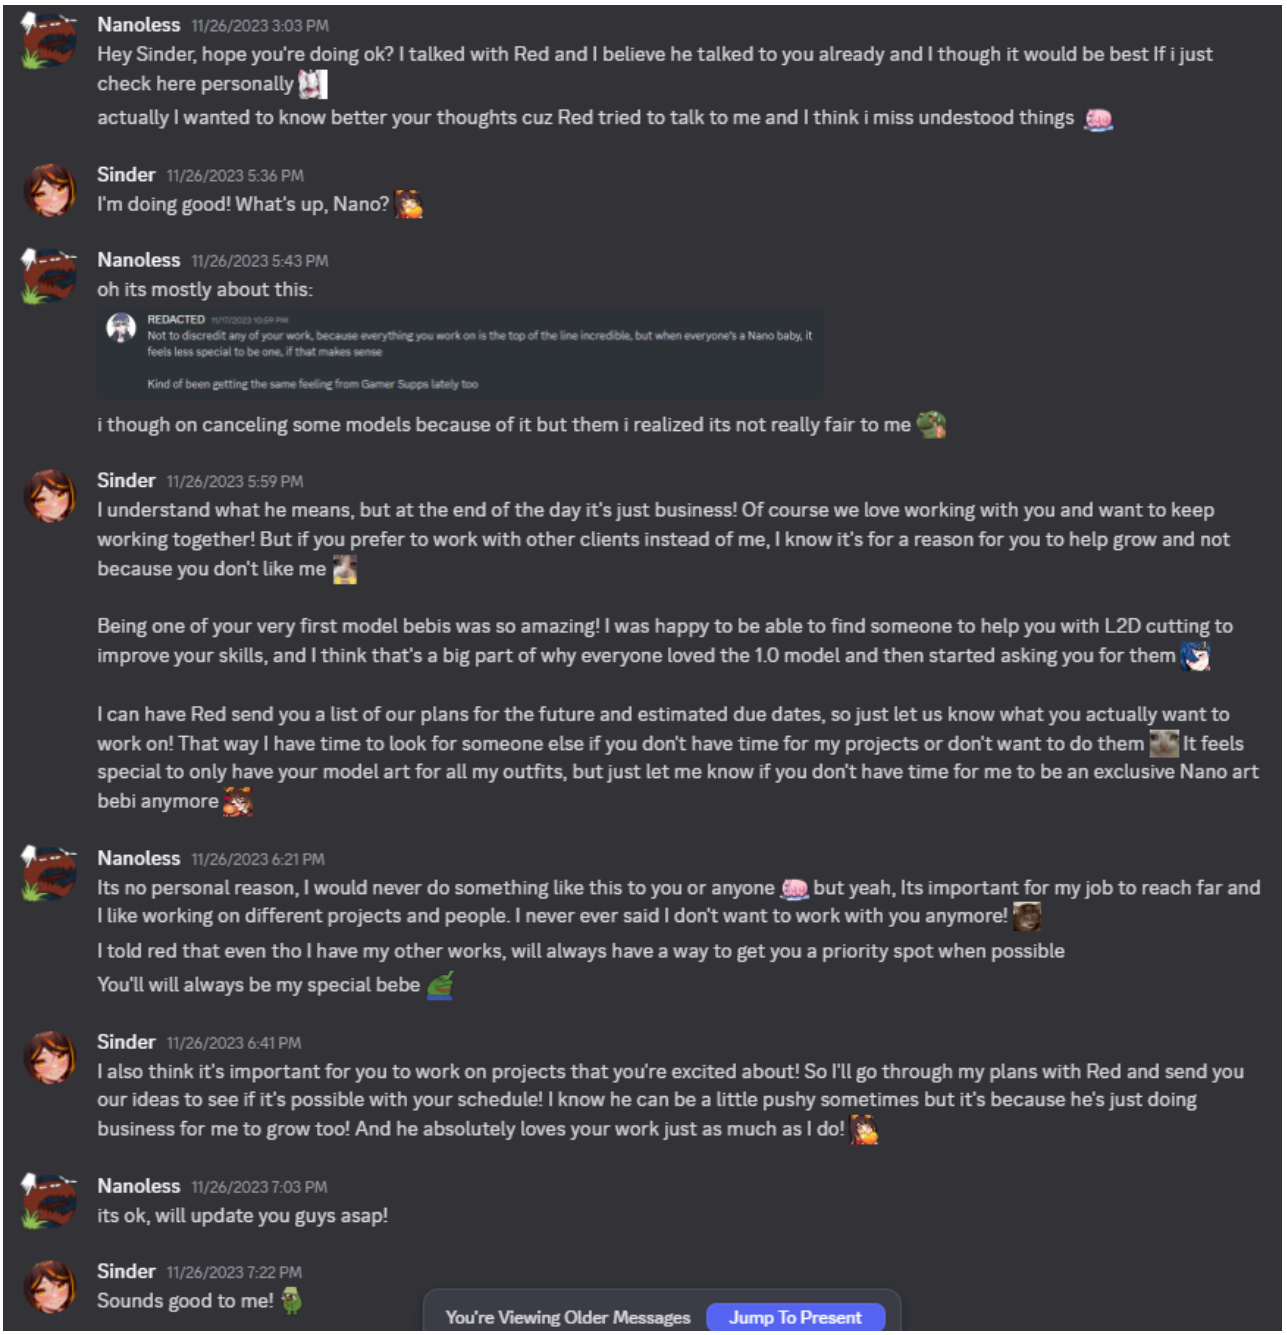


Justifying their behavior by stating that they are simply looking out for me (when none of this has anything to do with me to begin with) and manipulating me into being grateful for earning well thanks to them despite the loss of work from long time returning clients & new clients.

concerning my work & models as a team

Another example of going after other clients of mine from before, claiming that having more clients alongside them makes my work less special with the recurrence of “it’s just business”. Manipulating me into believing that working with her is special for multiple reasons and that I risk losing that special something as a client if I “prefer” to work with others. No acknowledgement of my reasoning & need of working with other clients due to the nature of my work. Solely focused on their issues.

I would also like to note again that this screenshot is one of many occasions that indicate that Red speaks on Sinders behalf. I was originally concerned with everything going through Red, that it may not have been 100% of Sinder’s feelings or wants. I messaged her about it to make sure that he spoke on her behalf and confirmed with both of them this was the case.



Red tries to make it look like they never meant for it to appear like they wanted me to be exclusive by framing it as something I wanted while immediately doubling down on the fact that me working with more people makes my work less “special” and no longer unique, as if every design is just a Sinder clone.

Nanoless 11/25/2023 10:46 AM

So its about working with Sinder. My friends told me its a bit unfair for me to stop other models so i do more for Sinder. Which i agree with them.

Im a free artist and i should do whatever i wanna do

I dont want to take sides on any drama or situations

I still will always have a way to have open slots for Sinder, but I won't be having her as my only customer

REDACTED 11/25/2023 10:50 AM

I agree, you're a free artist and you should do what you want , but I was under the impression that taking on more sinder work is what you wanted to do, I didn't think it was like we were making you do that

Nanoless 11/25/2023 10:51 AM

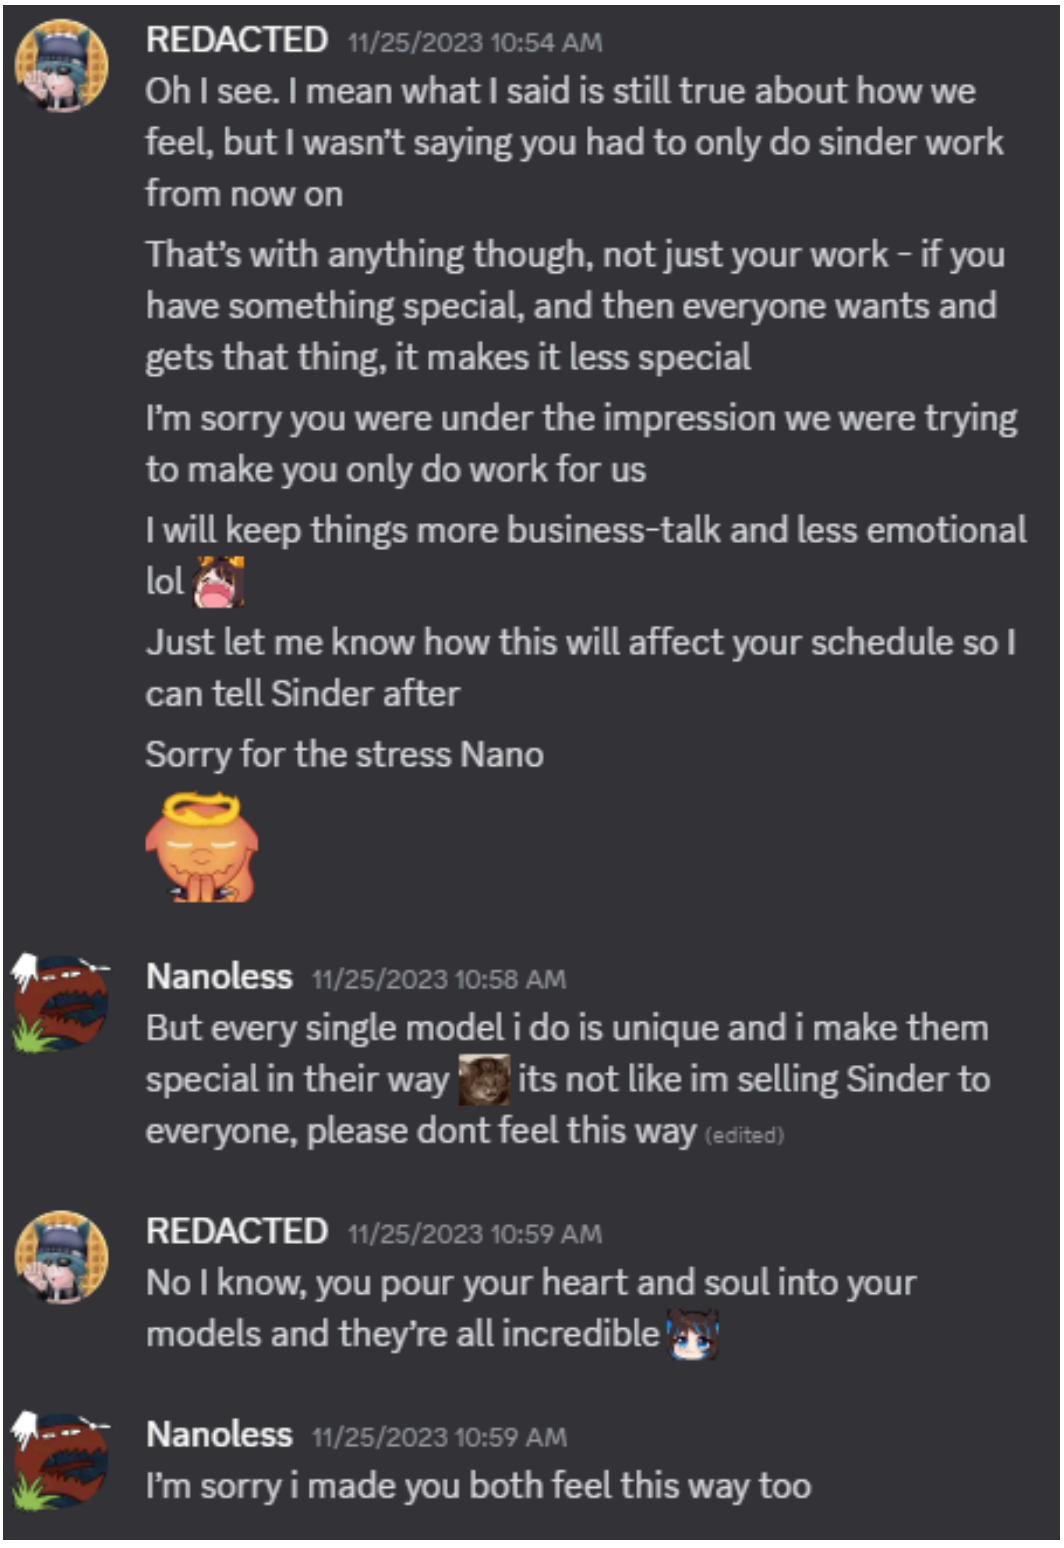
Guess we got a miss understand on both sides?

Its more about this:

> REDACTED Not to discredit any of your work, because ever...

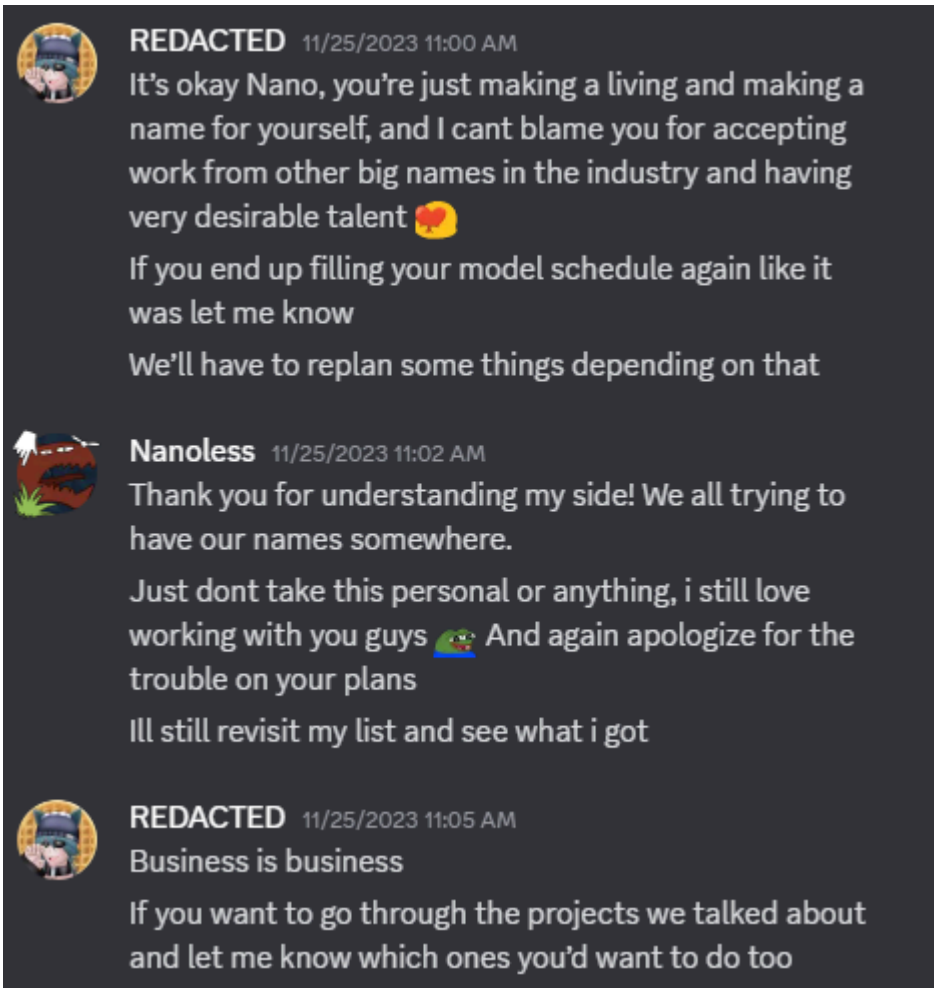
Nanoless 11/25/2023 10:52 AM

This



it's simply business

Normalizing their behavior once again by stating that this it's simply "business" to sabotage other vtuber's careers & not work with them & focus on Sinder instead.



REDACTED 11/25/2023 11:00 AM
It's okay Nano, you're just making a living and making a name for yourself, and I cant blame you for accepting work from other big names in the industry and having very desirable talent
If you end up filling your model schedule again like it was let me know
We'll have to replan some things depending on that
Nanoless 11/25/2023 11:02 AM
Thank you for understanding my side! We all trying to have our names somewhere.
Just dont take this personal or anything, i still love working with you guys And again apologize for the trouble on your plans Ill still revisit my list and see what i got
REDACTED 11/25/2023 11:05 AM
Business is business
If you want to go through the projects we talked about and let me know which ones you'd want to do too

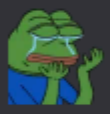
Nanoless I dont want to take sides on any drama or situatio...

REDACTED 11/25/2023 11:10 AM
Is this about [redacted] model Nano

Nanoless 11/25/2023 11:11 AM
YEA
I WANNA TAKE IT BUT I DONT WANNA DISRESPECT SINDER
I just wanna do pretty models
No hurt feelings

REDACTED 11/25/2023 11:13 AM
Business is business

Nanoless 11/25/2023 11:13 AM

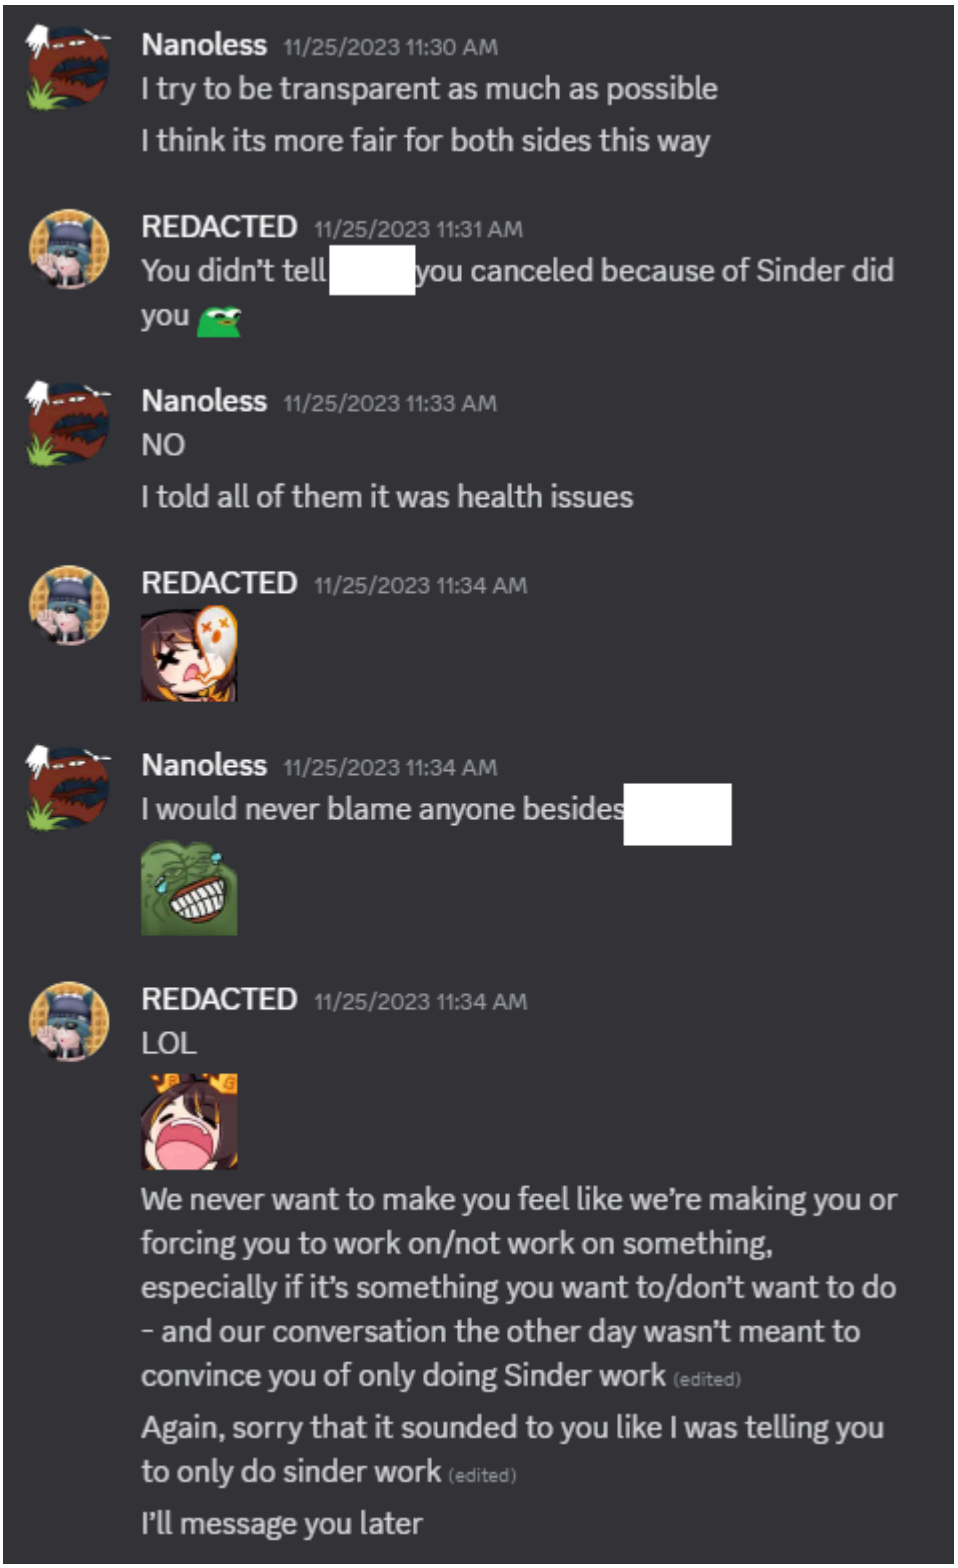


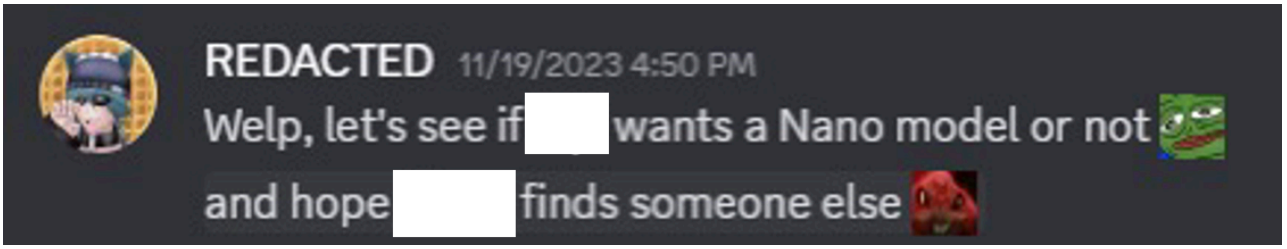
REDACTED 11/25/2023 11:16 AM
Nano you're a freelance artist and [redacted] is a longtime client, so it makes sense to continue doing work for her
I understand the logistics of it
At the end of the day you need to do what's best for you

Nanoless 11/25/2023 11:19 AM
I really appreciate for understanding my side
I do understand your side too, but sadly its something between you two, not me. I shouldn't get involved in this fight
I just go art brrrr

damage control

Making sure none of this reaches the other vtubers & is all kept hush hush, while also providing proof that they know what they do is ill intended & should not get out, as it would cause issues for Sinder's career to be painted in this light. Note that the uncalled shot at (Vtuber 1) is even spoilered (a hidden message in discord) so it wouldn't accidentally be leaked.





The constant obsession with (Vtuber 1) & claiming that she is asking for it by causing this "unspoken competition" which is coming from absolutely no other source than Sinder herself.

REDACTED 7/19/2023 12:46 PM

I think it's more like, wanting her to recognize Sinder (even though it literally doesn't matter)

I feel like there's this unspoken competition between them, like they need to 1 up each other because [redacted] can't get along

But I also understand her point of view

A new vtuber who people say looks, sounds, and acts like you becomes just as successful as you in a year

If she did recognize Sinder, as an equal or a friend, then it would be like she's endorsing her "copy" (or like I've seen some people say, her "replacement")

They share a lot of the same audience too 💀

REDACTED 7/19/2023 12:51 PM

Like at the end of the day it isn't about how much we make compared to her, we just want her to recognize hey, Sinder's a big vtuber too, she got there on her own merits, just like you did, get along

AND THE MARKETING POTENTIAL AND MONEY THEY COULD MAKE IF THEY TEAMED UP

I just know anything we do, she's watching and will take from or try to out do

Omg

You know the spinning figure we have on stream

[redacted] figure was announced on Wednesday

No spinning figure

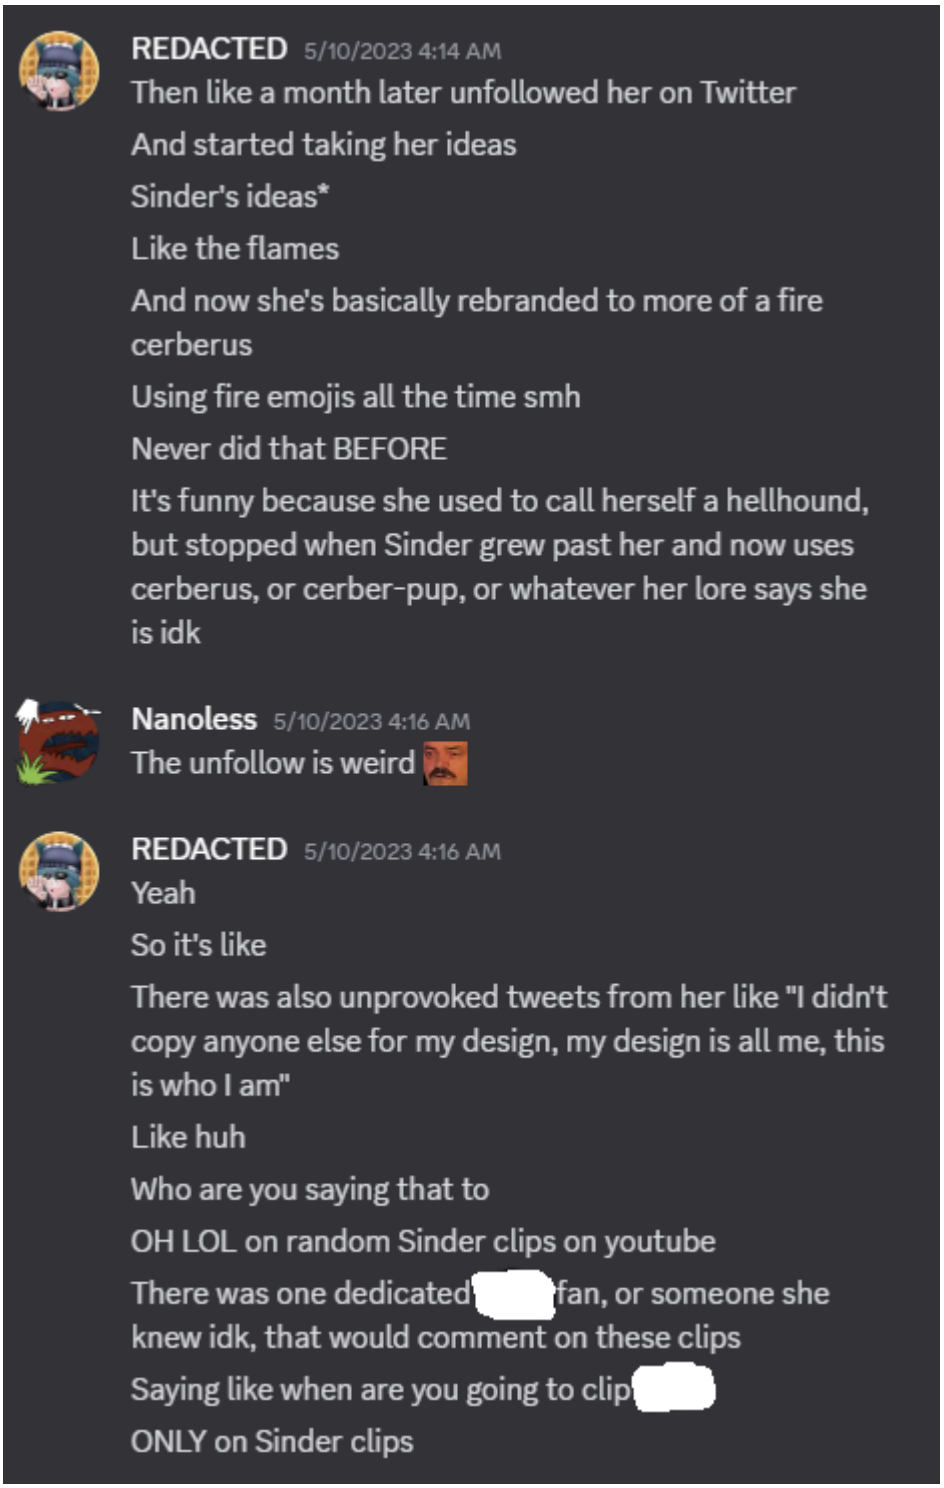
[redacted] stream yesterday, first stream since Sinder debut, guess what, spinning figure with !figure next to it



I'd like to highlight the irony of expecting to be entitled to recognition for her own efforts & size when her own active efforts are tied to sabotaging this very same vtuber. Also feeling entitled & insisting to be recognized by someone else is odd.

Thanks for taking the time to read through everything! I hope everything makes sense & everyone who has been hurt, manipulated or sabotaged by her will find closure.
